

The Food and Agriculture Industry: The Economic Underpinning of our Communities and the Rural Economy

Your support helps strengthen Northeast Agriculture...

Your membership will strengthen the Alliance's governmental relations efforts in addition to the excellent education, networking and outreach programs.

With Over 250 Members the Alliance Represents...

- More than 95% of feed manufacturers in the Northeast
- 90% of feed dealers
- Over 150 allied suppliers
- Membership list also includes
  - Animal scientists
  - Farm organizations
  - Agriculture department representatives

The Northeast Ag and Feed Alliance includes virtually every feed manufacturer in New York and New England and also has many members from Canada, Pennsylvania, and numerous other states supplying our Northeast feed industry.

The Northeast Ag and Feed Alliance's Accomplishments:

- Successfully supported legislation to improve feed manufacturers registration in New York State.
- Assisted with a coalition of animal agriculture groups to prevent caged layer legislation in New Hampshire and Connecticut.
- Provided leadership within a Vermont coalition to keep dairy science a priority program at UVM.
- Ongoing outreach to state governments and farm groups on regulatory and legislative issues.

Northeast: A Mega Milk Region

- Collectively, Northeastern States produce over the 27 billion pounds of milk each year.
- With over 1.4 million dairy cows within 250 miles of a major metropolitan center, the Northeast dairy industry is competitively positioned to serve consumers throughout the Eastern United States.
- The fluid milk market remains the primary market for half of the milk produced in the Northeast, thus enhancing the overall returns to dairy farmers.
- Feed demand for animal agriculture and companion animals is growing.
